

TERANIA CREEK PROJECT

Perfectly complementing the rainforest environment, this interpretation project was designed to tell the fascinating environmental protest history of Terania Creek, Northern NSW. This great interpretation outcome was achieved using signs and sculptures of various materials.

Miller's Photo Anodised Aluminium Signs are complemented by custom designed cut out corten sculptures and hardwood timber posts. The sculptures and signs have been installed in strategic locations throughout the rainforest to ensure maximum positive impact on the visitor experience.

